

Hofstra University
School of Health Sciences and Human Services presents the

National Public Health Week

Event Series

April 3-5, 2013

Wednesday, April 3, 2013

Mental Health Policy And Practice Issues In The Wake of Sandy Hook: An Invitation To The Conversation

4-5:30 p.m. | Hofstra University Club, David S. Mack Hall, North Campus

Unnatural Causes: Film Viewing And Discussion

7-9:30 p.m. | 209 Breslin Hall, South Campus

Thursday, April 4, 2013

Immunizations: Why Is Public Health's Greatest Achievement Also Our Greatest Challenge?

4:30-6 p.m. | Lowenfeld Exhibition Hall, Axinn Library, 10th Floor, South Campus

Friday, April 5, 2013

Are We Ready For The Next Big One? Lessons From Hurricane Sandy

9-10:30 a.m. | Lowenfeld Exhibition Hall, Axinn Library, 10th Floor, South Campus

Zumba: Ditch The Workout, Join The Party!

1:45-3 p.m. | Aerobics Room, Mack Fitness Center, North Campus

Soul Food Junkies: Film Screening, Panel Discussion And Food Tasting

6:30-9 p.m. | Roosevelt Fire Department Headquarters, 56 West Centennial Ave., Roosevelt, NY

Please visit the SOPHA table in the Mack Student Center April 3-5, 2013, to learn about the campus-wide public health campaign.

All events are free and open to the public, but registration is required by Friday, March 29, 2013. Email Keila Sole at Keila.ksole1@pride.hofstra.edu or call Jeannie Renda 516-463-7356

Sponsored by Hofstra University's
Society of Public Health Advocates (SOPHA), Master of Public Health Program,
M.S. in Community Health Program, and the Department of Counseling and Mental Health Professions

44834:3/13

