John L. Kominicki

Long Island Business News

John Kominicki is president and publisher of Long Island Business News, a diverse newspaper, magazine and specialty publishing company that has served the region since 1953. He also serves as director of editorial operations for the firm's corporate parent, Dolan Media Co.

of Minneapolis, which owns more than 75 law, business and specialty publications across the country.

Before coming to Long Island, Mr. Kominicki ran business newspapers in Fort Worth, Texas, and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Prior to joining the business side of publishing, he was a longtime writer and editor for such publications as European Stars and Stripes, The New York Times, USA Today, and The Dallas Morning News, among others.

John Kominicki serves on a variety of local boards, including the Long Island Association, the Long Island Business Development Council and LISTnet. Mr. Kominicki also serves as a trustee of Suffolk County Community College.

He has been named an advocate for small business by the Small Business Administration and was honored as a Distinguished Citizen by Dowling College, from which he received an honorary doctor of humane letters. His community and charitable works have garnered him numerous other honors.

A native of New Hampshire, Mr. Kominicki and his wife reside in Stony Brook.
