ARNOLD NEWMAN: Luminaries of the Twentieth Century in Art, Politics and Culture

September 3-December 13, 2013

This exhibition of photographic portraiture by Arnold Newman highlights the innovative minds and personalities that gave rise to the ideas and concepts that shaped the 20th century. Recognized as the "Father of Environmental Portraiture," where the background is an integral part of the image, Newman was influenced by the school of modernism. His work has contributed to the transformation of what we know as the photographic portrait; his work is found in numerous international museums and collections. This show is organized by art2art Circulating Exhibitions. Additional exhibition funding has been provided by Astoria Federal Savings.

Exhibition Reception: Tuesday, September 10, 2013, 4-6 p.m.

Emily Lowe Gallery, behind Emily Lowe Hall, South Campus
Hava Gurevich of art2art, exhibition curator, is the guest speaker. Free Admission.

SUBLIME HYSTERIA: The Art and Literature of German Expressionism

Friday, October 18, 2013 • 2-3 p.m.

Hofstra University Professor Neil H. Donahue will present an overview of the art and literature of German Expressionism. Using images and excerpts (in both German and English) he will explore the scope and intensity of the German avant-garde between 1905 and 1925, leading up to and following World War I in Germany. His talk will give participants insights into painting and poetry, drama and prose, as well as Expressionist cinema, with reflections on aesthetic and social theory. There will be ample opportunity for discussion.

Fee: $5 general public, $3 senior citizen (over 65) or PEIR member with HofstraCard. Free to Museum members and HU students/faculty/staff with valid ID card.

Bethpage Federal Credit Union Global Explorations for Adults at the HUM

Friday, November 15, 2013 • 2-3 p.m.

This popular program continues with explorations of the world's diverse cultures through the study and discussion of authentic objects and works of art from the HUM collections. Kristy Caratzola, the Museum's collections manager (who is also an adjunct professor of art history) leads each hour-long session where participants explore a different facet of selected cultures each month. Participants enjoy the personal connections between their own life experiences and the objects presented.

November's topic: Gender Roles in Non-Western Cultures.

Fee: $5 general public, $3 senior citizen (over 65) or PEIR member with HofstraCard. Free to Museum members and HU students/faculty/staff with valid ID card.
