

The Irigaray Circle and Hofstra University will present the third annual conference on the philosophy of Luce Irigaray in fall 2008. The conference will present work on or inspired by Luce Irigaray. We invite proposals that engage with any aspect of Irigaray's work, such as:

- The history of philosophy
- Psychoanalysis
- Medicine, health, and the body
- Language and literature
- Aesthetics and architecture
- Ethics
- Political theory
- Epistemology
- Literature and the Arts
- Multiculturalism

We welcome submissions from all disciplines, and from inside and outside of the academy. Please share this notice with your colleagues and students.

The deadline for proposal submissions is March 15, 2008. Completed proposals should be suitable for blind review and should include your name, professional affiliation, contact information, abstract title, a brief (one paragraph) bio, and, in a separate computer file, an abstract of 350-700 words, with title. The organizers welcome collaborative proposals for panel sessions, as well as individual submissions.

Proposals should be submitted electronically in .rtf format. Please send proposals for review to irigaray06@gmail.com. Please note that the conference organizers are planning an edited volume based on the conference and request the right of first review on all conference papers.

For further information on the conference, to receive an electronic version of the CFP, or to join the Irigaray Circle mailing list, please contact Gail Schwab, Danae McLeod, and Sara McNamara at irigaray06@gmail.com
