

Latin-American Heritage Month Film Screenings

Fall 2024

Wednesday, September 18, 2024

7-10 p.m. — Breslin Hall 211, South Campus

The Erection of Toribio Bardelli

Directed by Hofstra Film Alumnus Adrian Saba (2023)

Toribio Bardelli is an older man, who together with his three children, now adults, form a dysfunctional and failed family. About to turn 70, Toribio will pursue his only goal in life: to have an erection again.

Monday, September 30, 2024

6-9 p.m. — Leo A. Guthart Cultural Center Theater, Axinn Library, South Campus

Farmingville Directed by Catherine Tambine and Carlos Sandoval, 2004

Join us for a screening and discussion of the documentary Farmingville about immigration and its effects 20 years after its premiere. The documentary tells the story of a community in suburban Long Island in the late 1990s with an expanding population of “undocumented” immigrants and the attempted hate-based killing of two Mexican day laborers that catapulted this quiet suburb into national headlines.

Discussion to follow screening moderated by Lauren Burignat-Kozol, Rabinowitz Honors College
Panelists: Hofstra Professors Carlos Sandoval, Catherine Tambini, Mario Murillo, Alan Singer

Tuesday, October 15, 2024

7-10 p.m. — Breslin Hall 211, South Campus

Colibri Directed by Hofstra Film Alumni David and Francisco Salazar, 2024

When a young Colombian couple is faced with a major change in their lives, each one will go on a personal journey to right the wrongs of the past in order to build a stronger future. COLIBRÍ made its world premiere this summer at the Festival Cine de las Montañas in Salento, Colombia, followed by a screening at the Long Island International Film Expo in July. The film opened in Colombian theaters nationally in August.

These film screenings and discussion are organized and co-sponsored by the Department of Radio, Television, Film; the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Program; The Lawrence Herbert School of Communication; Hofstra's Office of Intercultural Engagement and Inclusion, and the Hofstra Cultural Center, in celebration of Latin American Heritage Month. All film screenings will be followed by Q&A, including with some of the film directors.

All events are FREE and open to the public.

Advance registration is required.
