

Call for Student Papers ($500 for the 2 best papers)

The Journal of International Business and Law (JIBL), which was established in 1999, is a student-run, semi-annual double-blind nationally recognized publication, produced by the Maurice A. Deane School of Law and the Frank G. Zarb School of Business, Hofstra University, New York, USA. It explores the interaction of business and law in the global marketplace. Typical authors consist of professors, law and business practitioners, and students. JIBL is calling for papers from current undergraduate/ graduate students and recent alumni for the Business Section. The paper will go through a double-blind review process. The high-quality papers will be chosen for publication in the journal, and the best of those will get an award of $500. Pursue the honor of your paper being published in JIBL and getting the $500 best paper award.

Submission Details for “General Business” Student Papers:

- 1. AWARD: The Journal publishes two issue per year. High-quality papers will be published in the journal and the best student paper per issue will be awarded $500 in scholarship (if you keep attending) or cash (if you graduate this semester)
- 2. AUTHORS: Students who are enrolled as either undergraduate or graduate students at Hofstra at the time of the submission date. You may co-author with professors, practitioners, or other students, but priority for the $500 award will be given to papers written by students only or a student as the leading author.
- 3. CONTENT: The manuscript should be original, academic in nature, which means it should explain a phenomenon from a theoretical or empirical perspective, rather than a newspaper or magazine article type, an industry or corporation analysis report, or a strategic plan. And it must not have already been published or, accepted for publication elsewhere. It should focus on the field of international business which is loosely defined as “any situation where the production or distribution of goods or services crosses country borders.” It can be related to any area of business (finance, accounting, information systems, analytics, marketing, management, entrepreneurship, business law, supply chain management, human resources, quality management, healthcare, corporate strategy, etc.). For sample writings, visit the JIBL homepage at <http://www.hofstrajibl.org/articles-archive> As for the format, follow the Journal of International Business Studies (JIBS) style at <https://aib.msu.edu/jibs>
- 4. SUBMISSION DUE: Submit the full paper by November 1 for the Fall issue (April 1 for the Spring issue)
